MEDICINAL.

The Dinner Pail

Of the American working man is generally well filled. In some cases it is too well filled. It contains too many kinds of food, and very often the food is of the wrong kind--hard to digest and containing little nutrition. As a consequence many a working man develops some form of stomach trouble which interferes with his health and reduces his working capacity. Where there is indigestion or any other indication of disease of the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition, the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will almost invariably produce a perfect and permanent cure.

Mr. Thomas A. Swartz, of Sub Station C, Columbus, O., Box 10, writes: "I was taken with severe headache, then cramps in the stomach, and my food would not digest then kidney and liver trouble and my back got weak so I could scarcely get around. At last I had all the complaints at once, the more I doctor'd the worse I got until six years passed. I had become so poorly that I could only walk in the house by the aid of a chair, and I got so thin I had grown up to me thinking that I could not be cured. Then one of my neighbors said, 'Take my advice and take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and make a new man out of yourself.' The first bottle helped me so I thought I would get another, and after I had taken eight bottles in about six weeks, I was weighed, and found I had gained twenty-five pounds. I was as stout and healthy to-day, I think, as I ever was."

FREE. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

BEAR ATTACKS CHILD.

The usually quiet and humdrum every day life of a country neighborhood a few miles east of Suisan, Cal., was thrown into sudden excitement Monday afternoon by the appearance in the vicinity of a large grizzly bear, roaming at will, and there was none to question the animal's right not only to half but all of the highway, until the unwelcome visitor ran against a harvesting crew, armed with pitchforks, sledge hammers and other improvised weapons of warfare. The first to meet the bear were three children traveling the highway aloft. When the bear dispirited their right to possession of a reasonable share of the road the children became frightened and fled from the object of their fear. The grizzly pursued them in an angry mood and with increasing speed, and when about to overtake them the fleeing children sought to escape by climbing over a plank fence with one barbed wire on the top. Two of the children succeeded in leaping the fence unscathed, but the clothing of the third, a little girl, about 10 years of age, became entangled in the wire and held her fast until the bear reached the spot on the opposite side of the fence. The children's screams attracted the attention of a harvest crew at work some distance away in the field where the children had sought refuge. A half dozen members of the crew wasted no time in going to the rescue. Some had pitchforks, while others were armed with various implements used about a harvester. In the meantime the bear had reached through an opening in the fence with his huge paw and imbedded his claws in the clothing of the child. By this time the harvest crew had arrived upon the scene and a fierce battle ensued. The bear broke through the fence and showed fight, the men returning the attack with their pitchforks. The grizzly tore the trousers from one of the men, Caleb Hendricks, who also received some ugly scratches on the leg from the sharp claws of the animal. The men used their pitchforks without mercy upon the body of the grizzly and the animal finally succumbed when a sharp prong pierced the heart. The man who made the fatal stab was William Reeves. It is not known whence the bear came. It is many miles to where wild animals of this kind have their habitation, and to reach Suisan it would be necessary to pass through a large area of thickly settled country, and it is all but incredible that he could travel so far before being captured. A more reasonable supposition is that the animal escaped from or was turned loose by some one of the many sons of Italy who earn a livelihood by giving "bear dance" exhibitions in the streets of the smaller towns. At any rate, the exciting experience which the grizzly caused will not soon be forgotten by the children and the harvest crew.

THE BALKAN SITUATION.

It was learned in official quarters in Paris that the action of Russia in ordering a naval squadron to Turkish waters may be speedily followed by important joint action on the part of the powers. Communications are at present being exchanged between the powers relative to a joint naval demonstration before Salonica. The final determination will depend largely upon Russia, but if a joint demonstration is determined upon the fleets of France and Austria will certainly co-operate, and it is probable that the fleets of all the other European powers having Turkish interests, except possibly Germany, which throughout has not favored taking energetic steps against Turkey, will take part in the demonstration.

In the meantime the Russian squadron will not proceed to Constantinople, as has been reported, but will rendezvous off a small port of the vilayet of Adrianople above the entrance of the Bosphorus. For the present this squadron have no orders to assume an aggressive course. Its action will depend on Turkey's fulfillment of the terms of Russia's final demands in connection with the assassination of Consul Rostkowski. The punishment of a number of the parties implicated is not considered to be full compliance with the terms of the demands, which include an adequate indemnity.

Besides the Rostkowski incident, the proposed joint naval action before Salonica is due to the earnest representations of the foreign consuls at Salonica, who set forth that their lives are in danger. The first representation of the subject reached the French authorities several weeks ago and since then other consuls have made similar representations. The assassination of M. Rostkowski is giving such emphasis to the statements of the consuls that consideration of a joint naval demonstration of sufficient strength to impress Turkey with the necessity for taking decisive action looking to the maintenance of order in Macedonia is now in progress. The exchanges of communications have shown that Russia and Austria continue to co-operate fully in the action taken toward Turkey.
